When you need a helping hand...

Liberty is here for you.

Serving our customers is more than providing safe, reliable energy and water services. It's also about volunteering in the communities we serve, planting community gardens, picking up trash, donating to local organizations, and more.

From the east coast to the west, in the United States and Canada, our team cares about our customers and communities and will be there for you with our strong backs, helping hands, and caring hearts.
