

Save money by managing your home energy use

- Lower your water heater temperature setting to 120°F.
- Remove furniture or items that block vents supplying and returning air to the air conditioner or furnace.
- Inspect your heating and cooling equipment. Replace old, outdated appliances with energy efficient models.

For more energy efficiency tips and available rebates, please visit libertyenergyandwater.com

